Kickbacks, Ancestors, and Wildcats - The Anarkata Turn Nsambu Za Suekama (2020)

The pigs say, 'Well, the Breakfast For Children program is a socialistic program. Its a communistic program.'

And the women said, 'Well, I tell you what, boy... I don't know if I like communism and I don't know if I like socialism. But I know that that Breakfast For Children program feeds my kids... And if you put your hands on that Breakfast For Children program, I'm gonna come off this can and I'm gonna beat your...'

The Anarchy of Black Girls Assembled in a Riotous Manner*

In September 2019 a group of Anarkatas set up a free store in a park, and asked the kids there to help us out and tell their friends and family about it. Not surprising to us, several young Black children, mostly little Black girls, began working out and asking around on their own accord about who needed what and how much they needed. They also started struggling with each other about whether or if there was anyone who was taking more than they needed and should put some stuff back or to give to someone else, and ultimately kept trying to make sure anyone in the area who lacked got something they needed. The kids, with these girls in the lead, were not self-professed anarchists. There was no pamphlet they read from and a lot of their deliberations did ironically involve some poor shaming as they
